UMC Student Programming Wins Award

By Elizabeth Tollefson on Thursday, April 14, 2005

Student Programming and Activities for Campus Entertainment (S.P.A.C.E.) at the University of Minnesota, Crookston (UMC) won the Innovative Programming Award at the National Association for Campus Activities (NACA) Northern Plains Regional conference held on April 7-10 held in Rochester, Minnesota. The conference provides an opportunity for students to network, get ideas, information, preview artists and get hands-on experience working with associate firms and neighboring schools.

The Innovative Programming Award is presented to a member institution for an innovative program conceived by the campus. The award is based on student involvement, creativity and the success of the program, as determined by the achievement of the program's goals. UMC received the award for the program "UMC Cribs" which was created on campus by the S.P.A.C.E. board.

The students competed against 12 other schools for this honor. SPACE members who worked on this project are Charly Reinert, Tracy, MN; Mark Belanger, Pequot Lakes, MN; Julie Koehl, Morris, MN; and Erin Kappes, Ada, MN.
